Spring 2022 Flex Week Report

- Jan 10th through Jan 12th.
- 1132 enrollments were recorded. This is the highest attendance since Academic Technology has started recording Flex Week attendance in 2017.
- Flex Week was held entirely on Zoom.
- 88 workshops that pertained to classified, management, and faculty were offered.
- 476 responses were given to the Flex Evaluation Form. Key findings included:
 - Faculty and staff would like a more consistent time frame for workshops.
 - Faculty and staff continue to want Flex workshops via Zoom, almost exclusively.
 - Some staff would like to see a more detailed workshop description on the workshop list sent out each day.
 - Some faculty were interested in having more networking opportunities.
 - Some faculty were interested in having more department specific workshops.
 - Some faculty and staff wanted to see workshops on more technological issues.

Scholarships

- 1 of 2 Professional Development Scholarships Requests was approved.

Department Liason

- PDC Reps will be going to departments and presenting the Department-specific Professional Development Needs Form.
