OPPORTUNITIES FOR STUDENT AND FACULTY COLLABORATION IN GOVERNANCE AND ADVOCACY

The 9+1 and 10+1, are the particular responsibilities and roles that students and faculty have in participatory government as outlined in Title 5. Their shared interests offer chances for collaboration and mutual growth despite their different points of view. They provide excellent programs and services that are in line with shared goals and speak up for the needs of students by collaborating and involving other college partners.

BUILDING TRUST

- Participatory Governance work is ultimately centered on the student experience and student success.
- Respect and appreciation for what each person brings to the “table” - Taking a “dual-perspective” and recognize the various roles (formal and informal) that we all play.

- Tenets and principles of inclusion, diversity, equity, antiracism and accessibility are embraced
- Build a cooperative environment of “us” not “we vs. you”
- Establish community agreements

NAVIGATING IMPOSTER SYNDROME

WRITE YOUR STORY!

Flip the narrative of imposter syndrome to reclaim your power. As you grow, you will cycle through different identities and levels of power and privilege. Beating imposter syndrome is not a one-time thing- it's a Lifelong process.
