WELCOME & OVERVIEW of the AGENDA

PRESIDENT'S REPORT

Gomez-Heitzeberg provided a brief report on behalf of President Christian.

- Informational presentations about facilities needs continue throughout the community
- If you receive questions as a member of College Council regarding facility needs, you can direct people to information posted on websites ABetterBC.com and yesonj2016.com
- Entrepreneurial/technology experts will be on campus Tuesday for a tour to see BC's technology needs; great opportunity to showcase these needs as the group is looking to provide funding

STRATEGIC DIRECTIONS

Item was deferred to October 21.

BC PATHWAYS AND SURVEYS

Fulks asked the Council to think of the Renegade Road Map to be a framework that brings the various BC initiatives together in a way that feels more coordinated than ever before.

Fulks presented information on the four pillars of the pathways:

- Clarify: Clarify Pathways (Mapping pathways to student end goals)
- Intake: get students on pathways
- Support: keeping student on pathways with intrusive advising and support
- Learning: learning with intentional outcomes

Fulks then asked the Council to provide input on the Renegade Road concept.

- Suggestion to over-communicate the concept at each opportunity
 - Fulks is available to present at other meetings
 - EAC will hold area meetings to promote concept and faculty involvement
 - Follow-up on institute held over the summer
 - Opportunity develop structural changes in communication about the concept
